A special note from Suzi:

The family constellation work pioneered by Bert Hellinger, and as it has evolved in my experience, reveals the parallel truths of the past, sometimes looking deep into it, to reveal the resources that allowed, indeed, compelled life to move forward to this moment. Together, we look to those who came before us to understand better the entanglements that may have snagged us in their hidden momentum, to the events out of which those entanglements were born, and to the ways in which love has been blocked along the way. Once these are more clearly in focus, the parallel truths of the system can also take shape: the resilience, the power, the love. The parallel truth? Essential life force far outweighs difficult details. With this understanding, with this experience, we can move out of rigid alignment with the vulnerabilities of the family system into the other sphere; the truth that gives wings to our hope, now and for the future.
